

Cohen's Giant Sale of Silks.

Compared to Any We Have Ever Held.

Forty-three thousand yards purchased from the executors of the Leon De Marcy Estate.

This importer was one of the largest operators in the silk world.

50c and 60c on the dollar of the cost of importation is the way they will be priced to you. This sale is head and shoulders above the best efforts we've ever made in silk selling—Black, Colors or Fancies.

You'll find hundreds to choose from—not a single piece that is not priced less than cost of production.

Yard wide Black Pure Silk Beau de Soie, deep, rich lustre, worth 95c, for 59c.
Rough Crash Finished Pongee, 27 inches wide, in the various solid colored effects, 50c; usual price, 85c.
